

Giuseppe Zuppari

Curriculum vitae

Giuseppe Zuppari was born in Naples, the Neapolitan capital; he obtained his diploma at the Casanova Institute of Naples, where since 1971 he has been a laboratory owner.

In 1969, he met Dr. P.K. Thomas, with whom he attended several courses.

His primary interest has always been focused on the development of aesthetics and the evolution of the most advanced techniques and materials.

In 1982, together with four dentists, he designed and created VILLA BEATRICE C.R.O., the flagship of Italian dentistry.

His passion for the subject has led him to speak at the most important national and international congresses.

Author of several publications and co-author of the books “Lo Stato dell’Arte nella Ceramica” and “Progressi in Odontoiatria.”

Together with his friend Willy Geller, he is the owner of the first Oral Design Center in Italy and, consequently, in the world.

Vice President of A.R.C.O.
